APPLICABLE STATUTES

PREVAILING WAGE ACT

The University abides by state purchasing laws affecting prevailing wages and ink and paper requirements.

Southern Illinois University requires compliance with the Prevailing Wage Act. By accepting a printing order from the university, vendor certifies that wages to be paid to its employees who are to produce the requested printing are no less, and fringe benefits and working conditions are no less favorable than those prevailing in the locality where the printing order originated.

SOYBEAN INK

Unless otherwise indicated, any printing services provided must be made using soybean oil-based ink.

RECYCLED PAPER

Per the Illinois Procurement Code \(30 ILCS 500/45-26\), State agencies are required to use recycled materials to the maximum extent feasible.

STATE AGENCY PRINTING

In compliance with Illinois Procurement Code \(30 ILCS 500/20-105\), books, pamphlets, documents, and reports published using state funds will require the following statement:

“Printed by the authority of the State of Illinois,” publication date, number printed and printing order number.

In order to insure that SIU Carbondale is in compliance, the printer must provide one copy of the final printed piece to SIU Printing & Duplicating Services, Mail Code 6733, Southern Illinois University, 210 Physical Plant Drive, Carbondale, Illinois 62901.

Vendor Signature
